

BIOGRAPHY GIORGIA PESCE

A trustworthy open-minded professional, after graduating in 2008 in Conservation of Cultural Heritage at the University of Genoa, she works at the Higher School of Oncology & Biotechnological Sciences of Genoa where she is in charge of events related to professional training in medical & health disciplines.

In 2009, she starts collaborating with the Congress Organisation Office of the Scientific Direction of the San Matteo Polyclinic Hospital in Pavia. From 2010 to 2013, she is employed at of the Focal Point International Affairs of Alleanza Contro il Cancro.

Currently, she is a Membership and Working Group relation officer at SOS Europe Srl, where she is also charged with the coordination of the Secretariat of the European network of Cancer Institutes (Organization of European Cancer Institutes-EEIG).